

TOIL AND pleasure, in their nature opposites, are yet linked together in a kind of necessary connection.—Livy.

ONE HALF, the finest half of life, is hidden from man who does not love with passion.—Beyle.

SIN HAS many tools, but a lie is the handle that fits them all.—O. W. Holmes.

TO PURSUE joy is to lose it. The only way to get it is to follow steadily the path of duty, without thinking of joy, and then, like sheep, it comes most surely unsought.—Alexander Maclaren.

Recreation Schedule At Torrance Parks

The following activities and special events are scheduled from July 1 until July 5 at McMaster, Torrance, Walteria, El Retiro, and Sea-Aire parks. The theme for the week is optional and will either be a continuance of "Buccaneer Days" or "Let's Pretend."

McMASTER PARK

On July 1 a scrap crafts program is planned for 10 a.m.; a story-telling contest for 2 p.m. There will be a field trip and scavenger hunt on July 2. The time will be announced later.

July 3 is "surprise" day. On July 4 at 7 p.m. there will be a family night program. This will include games, outdoor movies featuring cartoons, travel films, July 5 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. is the family "play day" and will offer such activities as crafts, games and picnic lunches.

TORRANCE PARK

At 11 a.m., July 1 the story hour specialist will offer her program. The rest of the time will be taken up in tournaments. Circle games are planned for July 2 at 10 a.m. The afternoon craft program will be in session. A cook-out will be held on July 3 at 11 a.m. The instrumental program will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. July 4 will consist of supervised play. On July 5 at 3 p.m. a "Pirate Day" costume contest is planned with refreshments following at 4 p.m.

WALTERIA PARK

On July 1 the crafts program starting at 1 p.m. will consist of decorating bikes. On July 2 a bicycle club parade is planned for 1 p.m. The crafts program for July 3 will consist of art, charcoal, woodburning and clay scheduled for 1 p.m. July 4 is scheduled for supervised play and will include tournaments, baseball games and relays. A hot dog feed is scheduled for 12 noon on July 5. Picnic games will follow.

EL RETIRO

On July 1 at 1 p.m. tournaments are planned. The story hour will be held at 2 p.m. A hamburger feed with punch is planned for 12 noon. At 1 p.m., July 5 there will be a mask contest.

SEA-AIRE

The following activities are scheduled for 2 p.m. every afternoon. On July 1 tournaments are planned and points earned from these contests will apply toward trophies to be given at the end of summer.

A cook-out is planned for July 2 at 2 p.m. At 11:30 a.m. the story hour will be held and at 2 p.m. on July 3 a pet show is planned. July 4 will consist of supervised play. July 5 is "surprise day."

The parks in Torrance are offering a program of games, crafts, supervised play and other activities in addition to the special events above. The parks are well staffed with competent personnel and are planned to meet the needs of many children during these vacation months.

THE GROWTH of grace is like the polishing of metals. There is first an opaque surface; by and by you see a spark darting out, then a strong light; till at length it sends back a perfect image of the sun that shines upon it. — Edward Payson.

Jurk Heads EC Program For Adults

Adults throughout the El Camino College area are taking out kinks in an evening recreational program sponsored by the college from 7 until 10 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The public is invited to participate in the recreational program, under the instruction of Don Jurk, an El Camino graduate and instructor. Jurk will serve on the Warrior football coaching staff for the second year next fall. He is also coach of the college gymnastics team.

Activities included in the evening program thus far are badminton, basketball, tumbling, gymnastics, and trampoline. No charge is made for the program, and no registration is necessary. Participants are free to attend during free time anytime throughout the three-hour period and any or all evenings of the week.
